Old Business:

- James Widener Memorial Bridge on Route 386 should open around Dec1.
- Acknowledge Membership Choices All positions will stay the same for next year.
- The Doug Farley Cobblestone Presentation The lecture included questions from the audience about Chili cobblestones. It was well attended.

New Business:

- 3611 union. Lynsey will finish this Certificate of Merit and bring it to be signed in December.
- 65 Stottle looks like a spot for a Certificate of Merit
- 1035 Paul Rd. Peter will work on this one.

Town Updates from Councilman James Valerio:

Nov.9, Veterans Breakfast with Boy scouts and many other groups lined the way at the Community Center entrance. Afterward, they lined up again along the way to the New Veterans Memorial where there are monuments dedicated to each branch of service and one for veterans who gave their lives for America. The weather was very nice and many citizens celebrated this new memorial.

12/6 6pm Tree Lighting at Community Center including a craft fair with Florence Brassier School.

New York State sent an email stating that next summer there will be much construction at the corner of 259 and 33A. Construction will include bike lanes and sidewalks.

Sidewalks on the north side of Paul Rd. will start next summer.

Dec. 9 next meeting This will be a short meeting followed by refreshments. Board members may bring something to share.

Adjournment:

Lynsey moved, Robert 2nd

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Hamilton, Secretary
